

THE ACME TESTING COMPANY'S QUALITY POLICY

At Acme Testing Company, our commitment to Quality Improvement in all aspects of our operation benefits our customers, employees, and shareholders. In order to ensure that the process of continuous improvement occurs in an effective and orderly manner, specific quality objectives are established, and are reviewed periodically. All employees are responsible for the quality of their work and through ongoing training and development are encouraged (and are given full management support) to make continued improvements in the quality of our services. A total commitment to quality, and compliance to requirements in all things we do will be the cornerstone of a sustainable competitive advantage, and will make Acme Testing Co. a better place to work.
